

Please register my opposition with regards to the NAB's blatant attempt to regulate free trade and emerging technology by suppressing local programming through satellite radio. If the NAB and its members wish to compete with satellite radio, let them do so in a free and open market, not through government regulation. Free competition in this market can only benefit consumers, while regulated advantage will only temporarily block a superior technology at the expense of consumers.

Ken Harlan

XM Radio customer